FIRST WAR DEAD RETURNS

Marine Corporal Richard G. Bolger Home For Burial

By Bunny Atkinson

The helm of the funeral-draped army transport Walter W. Schwenk loomed large under the Golden Gate bridge last Monday, bringing home Daly City's first war dead for burial on home soil.

Marine Corporal Richard G. Bolger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Bolger of 43 Risel street, was returning at last to familiar grounds — at the end of a fierce and bitter struggle in which he gave his life to protect them.

The long steel casket marked "Richard G. Bolger, Marines, Golden Gate Cemetery," lying in the hold of the funeral ship among thousands of identical caskets, gave only a hint of the story which unfolds behind this ending — an ending which comes too soon:

A scholarly boy, this young Bolger. A fellow who surely would be someone when he grew up, judging from his background and school record. Nothing but the best grades earned by this young fellow who showed such a determined quest for knowledge.

Through his high school career at Jefferson, and at his studies at San Francisco State and San Francisco Junior College, Richard worked hard — preparing for a useful and purposeful life in the world which would belong to his generation.

The war, of course, would detain him. But it was a job that must be done, and therefore warranted all his efforts while it lasted.

Enlisting in the Marines in November, 1942, only halfway through his college studies, Bolger was trained for his new job at Elliot Field and San Diego. He was the first of the local men to enroll in the nation's newest offensive combat unit—the paratroops.

His father, a desk sergeant at the Daly City Police Department, and his mother, as well as his brother Phillip, then a merchant marine, were proud of him. As in school, Richard ranked high in the esteem of his fellow Marines and his officers. True to his record, he was quick to learn and first to answer the calls for voluntary duty.

He served in the South Pacific during 1943 and 1944, returning only once for a leave at home. He left again, March 11, 1944, never to return. Nearly a year later, on March 8, 1945, Corporal Richard Bolger, serving with the Fifth Marine Division, was killed in action on Iwo Jima. Many others went with him.

The story of Bolger's repeated acts of bravery and devotion to the immense job he shared with so many others was revealed, in part, in the citation which accompanied the Silver Star posthumously awarded him in August, 1947.

Awarded for "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity as a squad leader," the citation read, "With his company pinned down by close-range enemy sniper, machine-gun and knee mortar fire from a strongly defended Japanese emplacement at the base of a steep cliff, Corporal Bolger voluntarily advanced alone under the savage barrage to a strategic position and, hurling hand grenades and explosives into the hostile fortification, accounted for most of the occupants before returning to his own lines for more ammunition. Continuing his determined attack, he completely destroyed the enemy position and forced the remaining occupants to withdraw. Though mortally wounded while firing on the fleeing Japanese, Corporal Bolger had enabled his company to occupy the cliff and had contributed directly to the success of our operations in this vital area. His daring initiative, indomitable fighting spirit and great personal valor in the face of fanatical opposition inspired his comrades to greater efforts and were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service. He gallantly gave his life for his country."

Friends and family were reminded this week—as if they ever forgot — of the eager youth who so surely would be a part of a better world, contributing so large a share to its peace and understanding.

Richard Bolger did contribute. He died, attempting to create it.

Daly City public schools will reopen next Monday after a week's Easter vacation, while Our Lady of Perpetual Help parochial school will begin its holiday Saturday, and reopen Monday, April 5.

In last week's edition, the Record erroneously stated that all schools would observe the post-Easter closing.

If the article served to convince public school children they were to have a two-week vacation — we're sorry, kids!

NEW THEATRE PLANS OPENING FOR APRIL 2nd

Emerging from the hands of a crew of artisans, the new Crest Theater, located at Mission and School streets prepares to swing open its doors on Friday evening, April 2.

Under construction since late fall, the new showhouse will have a seating capacity of 500 persons and is equipped with the latest type sound and projection as well as the newest type theater seating, ventilating and heating.

Decorators are now engaged in completing the theater in a colorful and modern motif.

As a permanent motion picture policy the new Crest will present a consistent run of pictures that will fall under the category of "first-run in Daly City and the Outer-Mission district" and the opening attraction will consist of "Body and Soul," a 1948 dramatic smash hit which co-stars John Garfield and Lili Palmer.

Billed as a companion feature on the outstanding opening bill will be "The Adventures of Don Coyote," an adventure story of the old Southwest filmed in color.

A more complete account of the new theater's policy will appear in an advertisement in next week's Daly City Record.

Pershing P.T.A. To Have Night Meeting In April

Executive board members of the General Pershing Parent Teacher Association were urged to attend the April meeting which will be held for the benefit of fathers and working mothers in the evening.

The board met Tuesday night at Mrs. Jack Caine's home on Bellevue avenue to plan the evening affair. Mrs. M. E. Nenstiel, president, extended a special invitation to members and other interested persons who could not attend the regular meetings, to participate in the April gatherings.

Children of the General Pershing school were entertained last Friday as an Easter party sponsored by the P.T.A. Each child received an Easter basket filled with candy eggs.

COUNCIL Recreation Dept., City Committee Are Commended

Elman Rose, director of the Daly City Recreation Department, and the city council's committee on recreation were commended this week in a letter read at the Monday night council session at city hall.

The letter, written by the secretary of General Pershing Elementary School's Parent Teacher Association, lauded the recreation officials for their successful program during the past year.

Councilman Paul Green, who is still confined to an army hospital at Denver, Colorado, was granted another 30-day extension on his leave of absence.

The sum of $100 was allocated by unanimous vote to the St. Patrick's Day float committee, as the council's promised donation.

Foregoing other official action, the council heard a request by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for permission to install an underground conduit and service boxes in the sidewalk on the east side of Mission street between Hillside boulevard and Wellington;

A gasoline consumption report for the month of February;

A substandard housing report concerning property at 234 Los Banos avenue,

And an oral request for installation of a stop sign at Mission Circle and Vendome.

Board of Education Representative To Speak Here Tues.

A city-wide meeting of Parent Teacher Association members and others interested in Jefferson school district affairs has been called by the board of trustees for next Tuesday, March 30, at 8 p.m. in Jefferson High School auditorium.

The meeting has been called to clarify for parents of local school children the state board of education's position in matters of immediate importance to local schools.

Speaker will be Edgar W. Parsons, field representative for the division of schoolhouse planning of the California State Board of Education. Parsons will pose before the parents the board of education's proposition on allocation matters and the state's analysis of local school building needs.

The speaker will be available for timely questions by the audience at the close of his talk.

Daly City Gets 34%; Colma 27% Of Red Cross Goal

A total of $745, comprising some 34% of the full $2,500 quota, was collected in Daly City during the greater part of a month-long drive for Red Cross funds.

With three days remaining until official closing of the drive Monday, Chairman Arthur J. Bodien expressed no hope today that any more contributions would be forthcoming.

Although the city fell far short of its quota, Bodien said the returns were higher than expected, considering the results of the 1945, '46 and '47 drives. Throughout the county, average returns equalled 34.9% of the desired goal — only silghtly higher than the Daly City collections.

Total returns were raised by a late $100 contribution by the Daly City Theatre.

In Colma, a small, concentrated body of solicitors raised a total of $508 — approximately 27% of a $1,900 quota. Mrs. M. Pauline Brown headed the Colma drive.

Elementary School Teachers Taking First Aid Course

A first-aid refresher training course is underway this week for teachers in the Jefferson Elementary School District.

Suggested by Mrs. Sylvia Eastham, school nurse, and the board of trustees, the course is designed to bring teachers up to date on standard methods of first aid.

Pointing out that four or five years have elapsed since most teachers have studied or practiced first aid, Mrs. Eastham said it seems imminent that they become again qualifed to administer aid when emergencies arise.

The course is being given under the direction of J. P. Thompson, director of the Red Cross Safety Program for San Mateo County.

QUEEN IS CHOSEN TO HEAD LOCAL MAY DAY FETE

Seven-year-old Arleen Anderson of General Pershing Elementary School has been chosen to reign as queen over the May Day Festival to be sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department May 2.

The young beauty, who resides at 149 Alexander avenue, was chosen by a process of election and elimination last week in a city-wide search for the crown star of the event.

From five young girls between six and eight years old representing General Pershing, Jefferson, Woodrow Wilson, Thornton and Our Lady of Perpetual Help Elementary Schools, festival committee judges last week selected Arleen to preside. The choice was made by drawing four names out of a hat — leaving one for the top honor position.

The other four girls, who will act as the queen's attendants, are Sandra Shonghnessy, 110 Moltke street, Jefferson Elementary; Donna Cormack, 21 Muirwood drive, Woodrow Wilson; Nancy Gillan, 6925 Mission street, Thornton, and Maureen McGraw, 87 San Pedro road, Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

The youngsters began training for their parts Tuesday, under the careful coaching of Bunny Carroll and Ellen Stone, local dance instructors. The dance teachers met last Thursday with the children's mothers, to plan costume styles and practice hours.

A little boy crown bearer, as well as flower girls, will be chosen from among students of the Bunny Carroll school.

Silicani Returns To Serve 90 Days; Auto Court Robberies Solved

Robert J. Silicani, 21, 452 Irvington street, was returned to the county jail last week after breaking parole granted him for good behavior January 18.

Silicani was apprehended Thursday night by local police and jailed for vagrancy and investigation of petty theft. Police said he confessed to numerous recent auto court burglaries, and that much of the "loot" taken was recovered on his arrest.

Municipal Court Judge William J. Sweeney sentenced him to 90 days.

Boy Hurt In Fall Through Skylight

Mervin Nensteil, eight years old, is "doing nicely" at home today after a fall last week in which he sustained minor head injuries and lacerations.

The boy was treated at St. Francis Hospital after he fell through a skylight while playing on the roof of a building under construction on Risel avenue.

Mervin was taken to the hospital, his father told police, after treatment by a local doctor.

Members of the local club will be included in the program and a hilarious time is promised. A good picture has been secured to complete the show.

A liberal cash door prize and the success of last year's program indicate a full house is to be expected. Local activities will benefit from the proceeds.

County Budget Is Expected To Soar--- Record Cost Seen

The San Mateo County budget for fiscal 1948-49 is expected to soar to new heights during the next three months, as supervisors conduct public and private hearings on the various county departments' requests.

Requests so far total $1,112,070 more than was granted for fiscal 1947-48, and the amount is expected to go still higher as additional requests are turned in by department heads.

County Controller Fred Beer has attributed the increase to expanding functions of the county government; to larger staffs and to generally higher wages to meet a rising cost of living.

Largest item in the budget is allocated to salaries. During the last fiscal year, supervisors allowed $2,221,717, as compared with a request for $2,597,649.50.

One of the largest increases noted among the new requests is the social welfare department's estimate, listed at $2,245,783, as compared with last year's $1,410,-106. The increase is due largely to the transfer of the medical welfare out-relief section from the medical department to the social welfare. Other divisions of the department figuring largely in the increase are:

November election expenses amounting to $100,000, added to last year's budget of $77,000 for election registration;

An increase to $225,000 from $106,000 in money allotted by the county toward employes' retirement fund;

An increase asked by the sheriff amounting to about $30,000 to provide for two new deputies, three matrons and a radio dispatcher;

Approximately $10,000 increase sought by the county recorder for film for the photostating machine purchased recently.

Two Local Women To Tour U.S. In 2½-Year Motor Trip

A two-and-a-half-year tour of the 48 states, Mexico and Canada.

That sounds like a big prospect for Miss Emily Oyhancabal and Miss Ethel Carlson, of Daly City, but they've been resting up for the trip for the past few weeks.

The two ladies will leave May 1 to motor north, then cross-country, stopping for leisurely vacations in spots which catch their fancy.

Both milliners, Miss Oyhancabal and Miss Carlson intend to spend much of their time hunting new ideas and checking new styles for a business which they hope to open on the peninsula when they return.

They will be in New York next fall, and intend to spend the winter working with Lily Dache, famed French chapeau artist, at her fabulous East Side studios.

GOLF
Sylvestri To Play Bailey In Finals Next Sunday

Daly City's golf whiz Bob Sylvestri has done it again.

Sylvestri has reached the finals of the San Francisco Amateur Golf Tournament — to compete with Dick Bailey, Modesto Junior College chemistry prof, for the title and the cup next Sunday.

The local tavern owner and twice-defeated finalist earned the honor for a third time last Sunday by overcoming Oakland's veteran Payne Crow, eight and six. Sylvestri built his lead to eight after the 27th hole, as he went out in one over par 37 against his opponent's 40. Climaxing the match with a 10-foot birdie putt which fell in the 30th hole, Sylvestri was three over par for the 30.

Sylvestri's spectacular win was overshadowed in interest only by the circumstances of the other finalist's victory. Bailey, who started his match with putter Maurice Small an hour early, was married in a 5 p. m. ceremony in San Francisco after the tourney.

Newshounds, cameramen and fans followed the match closely, at times even getting in the way of the contenders, waiting to see if the bridegroom-to-be would be a victor twice that day.

At the end of the match, Miss Toni Stout raced out to the 34th hole, rewarded her man with a resounding kiss before the hundreds of spectators, and marched him off to the waiting minister.

Next Sounday's play, always the best attended of all tournament matches, will see a competition between two World War heroes.

Sylvestri, who served as a watertender on the carrier Liscombe Bay which was bombed by the Japanese in the Pacific, was one of the 200 survivors who lived to tell of the other 800 or more who were lost. Bailey, an artilleryman in Germany, spent months in the hospital after catching a piece of shrapnel in the leg.

EASTER

Our Easter celebration is a strange combination of the sacred and the frivolous — solemn church services on the one hand, gay fashion parades and jolly Easter egg hunts on the other.

Yet, each has its place.

The lighter phases of Easter are as much a part of the occasion as are the toys and trees at Christmas time. Much of the color of Easter — literally and figuratively — would be lacking without the proverbial Easter bonnet, without the display of finery on the "Fifth Avenues" in towns and cities throughout the land.

And what would Easter be to the little ones without the Easter bunny and the thrill of searching for the brightly colored eggs he leaves for them?

On the serious side, the crowds of worshippers at sunrise services and in great cathedrals and tiny churches, gathered to commemorate the Resurrection of the Prince of Peace are always impressive. In song and sermon the ageless story of the Resurrection is told again and with this story comes a renewal of hope to the hearts of men.

Today humanity needs that hope more than ever. The frustrations of the past, the problems of the present and the fears of the future weigh heavily upon it. But if men are to find a deep and abiding hope they must practice more earnestly the teachings of the Master Christian. They must rise above the sordid and selfish and improve the world by improving themselves.

In this way they will grasp the deeper meaning of Easter and they will commemorate Christ and the Cross in a more practical way than ever they could by mere words or ceremonies.

PRICE OUTLOOK

In the latest sampling of public opinion the Gallup poll has come up with the report that the American people are not pessimistic about the nation's economic outlook. Only one person in every eleven thinks we'll have a depression this year and one in four thinks there'll be such trouble in the next two years. Most interesting was the fact that among those who thought the price level would change in the next six months, the great majority believed the trend would be downward. Let's hope they're right.

Alice D'Isep Tells Engagement To Donald Johnson

A sparkling karat diamond flanked by two smaller stones — token of her engagement to Donald Johnson of Belmont—glistens on the hand of Miss Alice D'Isep, of 884 Templeton avenue.

Alice received the ring last Wednesday from her navy veteran fiance.

A graduate of San Mateo Junior College, Johnson, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. William Gray of Belmont, served in the navy for two years, seeing duty at Bikini. He is currently studying at Santa Clara.

A 1946 graduate of Jefferson High School, Alice, daughter of the Albert D'Iseps, will be graduated from San Mateo Junior College in June. She is affiliated with Theta Tau Omega sorority.

Wedding plans are indefinite.

Student Government

Among the many activities at Jeff, the one phase of school life that does not deserve to be overlooked in any way, is student government. On Wednesday, March 10, 1948, the first trial of the Jefferson Union High School Student Body Court was called by Judge Mario Stanghellini. Twelve offenders who, during the previous weeks had received tickets from any sergeant-at-arms, were found guilty and given sentences for their various violations. A student merits a ticket for such violations as talking, chewing gum, being rowdy during assembly, eating in the school halls, and not producing a room pass while in the halls during class sessions or lunch period. With such sentences as a week's work in the cafeteria, or a two-thousand word essay on deportment, it is doubted if there will be many offenders in the future. The jury was composed of one boy and four girls who were chosen at random. The clerk was Jackie Cuneo and keeping order was Sergeant-at-Arms Ray Lagomarsino.

Senior Activities

Two meetings of the Senior Ball Committee have already been held. At the last meeting held on Friday, March 19, the theme for the Senior Ball was definitely set. Many students have volunteered their services to Lee Oberg, who is at the head of this committee.

The Senior Jinx Committee, headed by Doris Parodi, has begun its work. At their last meeting they discussed and voted upon a possible theme for the jinx.

Boxing Pictures

The nine winners of the boxing tournament — Charlie Goodnol, Don Kurtz, Bill Lyman, Bob Gallagher, Buster Sherriff, Clarence Hubrig, Henry Hermansen, Gene Cross, and George De Salvatore—had their pictures taken and they will appear in the year book.

Swimming Tests

The life-saving courses just completed at Jefferson were a tremendous success for, more than any other school, Jefferson has the largest number of student instructors who passed the course.

Thomas Tromborgs Return From Trip To Mexico City

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tromborg, are back in town today, resting after an active six weeks spent in the heart of Mexico.

Combining a business trip with pleasure, the Tromborgs drove south through southern California, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, into Mexico and on to Mexico City, where Tromborg, affiliated with the Bay City Racing Association, assisted in staging a race and show.

Their trip was not limited, however, to the sights in the Mexican capital. The local couple took numerous side trips along Mexico's modern, well-kept highways, to take in the fabulous Guadalupe Shrine, the Castle of Chapultapec, and Alcopoco on the Pacific, among others.

The American tourist, the Tromborgs report, is impressed with the beautiful countryside in Mexico; the always favorable weather, the frequent fiestas and above all, the modern cities.

On their leisurely trip, the Daly Cityans routed their drive through numerous tourist attractions, visiting Carlsbad Caverns and Coolidge Dam. A large contribution to the success and comfort of their trip, the Tromborgs said, was the absence of any motor trouble.

Improved Grass Variety

Mandan wild rye, an improved variety of native Canada wild rye, is winter hardy, an exceptionally high yielder of seed and forage. Principal grass virtues are its ease of establishment, rapid growth and high seed and forage yield. It is useful on sandy soils where a fast-growing cover crop is needed.

Butter Nutritive

As far as nutritive value is concerned, butter affords fats and vitamin A.

Elizabeth Thomas, Leslie Greig Wed In Informal Rites

The newly married Leslie Greigs are making their home in San Luis Obispo after their recent wedding at the Bethel Lutheran Church on Alemany boulevard here.

The nuptials were tastefully informal, with the Rev. Herbert Schroeder pronouncing the vows. The bride, the former Elizabeth Thomas, was given in marriage by her father, John Newton of Colma. Pink blossoms adorned the altar.

Wearing a champaigne colored suit fashioned with a full ballerina skirt, the bride carried a corsage of white orchids and lillies of the valley. Miss Mona Keelty, her only attendant, donned a grey print dress and carried a purple orchid corsage.

Clayton Kollman performed the duties of best man, while Ed Marble and Bob Nelson showed guests to their seats.

A wedding reception at the bride's parents' home, 229 "F" street, Colma, saw some 300 guests speaking felicitations to the bride and bridegroom. The bride's table displayed a five-tier wedding cake topped with the same hand-carved porcelain vase which had adorned the wedding cake of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Greig of Hanover street.

Both Elizabeth and Leslie were graduated from Jefferson High School; Leslie going on to California Polytechnic in San Luis Obispo after serving with the army in the European theater.

The future benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Martinelli of Daly City and was educated in the Jefferson School District schools.

OFF THE BLOTTER - - -

Thefts and attempted thefts, accidents, fires and countless other miscellaneous happenings kept the Daly City Police Department jumping this week — one of the busiest weeks for them so far this year.

Three successful thefts and one probable attempt were reported. A group of American Legion members told police they were surprised last Wednesday night by a group of boys, around 17 or 18 years of age, as they left the Legion Hall. The boys had smashed the front porch light and the front window, but were frightened off as the members crowded out.

Arthur Lauffenburger, 282 Oliver street, reported last Friday that his bicycle had been stolen from its parking place on the Jefferson High School grounds.

An undetermined amount of cash was reported stolen Tuesday from the home of Mrs. George Bunner, 259 Frankfort street. Mrs. Bunner told police a globe bank had been emptied during the family's absence, but other valuables remained intact. Entrance apparently was gained through an open window.

Lorenz and Suling, contractors, told the local station last Saturday that approximately $20 worth of household fixtures had been removed from a newly constructed home. The theft was discovered when tenants were moving in. Burlars might have entered through a bathroom skylight, they said.

Property damage resulted in several automobile accidents during the past week on Daly City streets. Cars were damaged in varying degrees in these accidents:

Cars driven by Michael Apcar, jr., San Francisco, and Pauline Mariocchi, Burlingame, in an accident at Hillcrest drive and Mission street;

Floyd Oscar Starry, Nevada City, and an unidentified vehicle which collided last Friday at Mission street near School street;

An accident involving cars driven by Ott William Bolser, San Francisco, and Alice Griffen, San Francisco, in front of 2123 Junipero Serra boulevard;

A car driven by Peter J. Stromsheion, San Francisco, and Lawrence B. Hanson, Oakland Army Base, accident at Highway No. 1 and Junipero Serra boulevard;

Accident between an unidentified motorcycle and a car driven by Frank Neuman, 6512 Mission street, at Westlake and Mission;

Tow car at Lombardi's Service Station and the trunk of another vehicle were damaged when an unidentified driver backed his car into them and drove away.

An accident at Mission and Bismark streets involving cars driven by Harold E. Risdon, 289 Hillcrest drive, and Robert Newell Blockburn, San Francisco;

An unidentified car which allegedly backed into one owned by A. H. Lunden, 70 Eastlake avenue, and parked in front of his home;

Slight property damage in an accident between cars driven by Ada Vincent, San Francisco, and one owned by Thomas Giannini, Redwood City, at Los Banos and Mission street;

Tina S. Ariani, San Francisco, and Eugene S. Arata, 142 Acton street, whose cars collided Tuesday at Winchester and Evergreen streets;

Two fires were reported on consecutive days last week end in Daly City, bringing Fire Companies 1, 2 and 4 to the scene.

The fire trucks responded to a call made late Saturday night by an unidentified woman, who said she saw smoke in the Mission street Safeway store. Smoke was caused by a burning motor in the cooling plant at the store.

A box of smouldering ashes left on the back porch of the Clarence Heptinstall residence, 32 Alexander street, brought fire trucks to the scene Sunday when the box was ignited and burst into flames.

Electric wires on Junipero Serra boulevard were torn down Tuesday when the front scaffolding of a building under construction near Westlake avenue was blown over by the wind. The building was being erected by Bush and Co., contractors.

A family quarrel led to violence and, finally, to the hospital last Saturday when an irate wife bopped her husband in the head with a vase, according to police. The husband was taken to Junipero Serra Hospital for treatment of a minor scalp wound when the wife, now repentent, told them he was injured in a fall.

Roy Womack Tells Candidacy For County Supervisor

Formal announcement of his candidacy for county supervisor from the first township was made last week by Roy P. Womack of San Bruno.

Womack will oppose T. L. Hickey, incumbent, who filed for re-election to his long-held post last week. Womack's announcement came on the heels of a public announcement by A. J. Bodien of Daly City that he would not run.

A resident of San Bruno for the past seven years, Womack is the former proprietor of Womack's Department Store. He is a veteran of World War I, serving as an army captain in the famed 91st Division, and is affiliated with both the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion.

Past president of the California State Employes' Association, Womack is considered one of the state's foremost authorities on the workings of civil service.

During the past year, since his retirement, Womack has served on the county's charter clarification committee. He was candidate for state assemblyman from San Mateo two years ago.

Announcing his candidacy, Womack said:

"I feel that my qualifications and experience can well serve the people and the needs of San Mateo County; that I have the time to serve the people of this district and the people of this county, and therefore place my candidacy before the voters of the county."

Baby Boy Born To E. Verhagens In Wisconsin

Daly City friends of the Eugene Verhagens last week received announcements of the birth of a second child to the former Daly City couple.

Mrs. Verhagen is the former Rita Lozano, of 280 Miriam street, Daly City.

Barbara Ford, Ben Parodi Announce Wedding Plans

Wedding bells will ring next fall — probably in September — when Miss Barbara Terese Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ford of Parkview avenue, becomes the wife of Ben Parodi, local basketball star.

The popular young couple announced their intentions last week when Ben gave Barbara a ring — a sparkling 15-diamond cluster set in platinum. The wedding will be one of three in the John Parodi family this year.

June nuptials are being planned by Estelle Parodi and Lee Calcagno, while Doris Parodi plans to become Mrs. Joe Barros next winter.

Barbara, a clerk in the Daly City Water Company office, was graduated from Jefferson High School. She plays in the drum corps of the Native Daughters El Carmelo Parlor.

Always active in sports while attending Jefferson, Ben is one of the mainstays of the top-scoring Colma Boys Club.

Barbara and Ben will entertain friends next Saturday night, April 3, at a party in her parents' home, 65 Parkview avenue.

GOP Women Hear County Sanitarian, Recreation Head

W. Emerson Smith, chief sanitarian for the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare, was guest speaker last week at a meeting of the county council of Republican Women at Gunst House, Washington Park, in Burlingame.

Smith gave an informative talk on the varied duties of his office. Another speaker was Ben McGuire, superintendent of Burlingame's recreation department, who displayed the preliminary blueprints and explained plans for the new community center building in Washington Park, for which a bond issue will be up for vote next month.

A study of the proposed 23rd amendment was considered by the group. Plans were made for the May membership luncheon. Miss Cleo Prineas and Mrs. Eleanor Larke served refreshments.

Eagles Drop Roofers From List of Title Contenders

An amazingly low score of 24-19 is all it took to eliminate Alex Johnson's Roofing Co. from the Jefferson Basketball League lead. Absence of guard Ted Prescott and forward Johnny Rerescich, plus great rebounding by the entire Eagle team spelled defeat for the Roofers, and victory for the Eagles.

Four times, almost in succession, the Roofers shot, lost the ball to the Eagles, who passed to Ed Denning, who would turn and from thirty feet, calmly arch the ball through the hoop, then slowly stroll down the court. Guards Rode and Welsh seldom allowed the Roofers more than one shot at a time. Denning was high man of the game with nine points.

On the same night Visitacion Valley C.C. scored four more points than did the victorious Eagles, yet lost their game by 36 points. Yes, it was our own Colma Boys Club who scored 64 points, beating by one point the record 63 made by the Sportsmen two nights before. Joe Sarto's five was red hot and seemingly after the record as Bob Savelly scored 18 points for high point honors, followed by Greenough with 12. McDonnell was high for Visitacion with nine points.

With Johnson's Roofers out of the way the league race seems a little clearer now. It's a race between the fast breaking Colma B.C., the tricky and deadly Sportsmen, and the well balanced Union Liquors; with the latter least likely to succeed.

The Sportsmen are practically conceded at least a tie for first since they have only to drop the Warehousemen and San Bruno Lions. The Boys' Club has yet to play the Union Liquor and vice-versa of course, but U.L. also has to meet the Roofers, who will be out to show that fully equipped, they are still one of the best in the league.

There were no games scheduled this week, but play will resume next Tuesday and in three weeks the story will have been told.

League standings:

What it's like to be a telephone installer

1. Some of the busiest fellows in town... Pacific Telephone's installer-repairmen. For we're adding a lot of new telephones every day in the West. It's steady work. And the pay? Latest records show top rate men average about $80 a week for 42 hours. The younger men graduate up to the $80... according to experience.

2. If you became an installer you'd start, most likely, in a training school. With pay, of course...$37 or $38 a week. Then regular increases for eight years after you got on the job. You'd be given other training, too...to help you learn your way up the ladder. Most all the top men in the company came up that way.

3. Fun like this is more fun when your job's secure. And you can count on telephone work. There's a fine benefit plan, too, paid for entirely by the company. It covers sickness, accidents and death, and provides a helpful pension for retirement. There's nothing like the peace of mind a telephone job gives you...at work or at play.

4. Telephone jobs must be good jobs to attract the capable people needed to furnish good service. Good pay, steady work and an employee benefit plan give a strong sense of security. Comfortable surroundings, vacations and friendly fellow workers help make work pleasant.

12th Naval District Contributes $15,800 to March of Dimes

The "March of Dimes" fund was enriched by $15,800 today when Rear Admiral Donald B. Beary, U.S. Navy, commandant of the Twelfth Naval District, turned over checks for that amount to Mrs. Charles A. Martin, civil service employee at the Mare Island Naval Shipyard, and a former polio patient. She will forward the "March of Dimes" funds to Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Naval personnel and civilian employees, headed by Commander J. L. Wilford, U.S. Navy, director of Welfare in the Twelfth Naval District, were active in conducting the appeal by organizing inter-office competition and stimulating the drive in many ways. As a result of their efforts, dimes rolled in from as far away as Utah and Colorado to boost the Twelfth Naval District's contribution.

DISCOVERY OF OREGON CAVES

A wounded bear, followed by a pioneer hunter, in 1874 led to the discovery of the Oregon Caves near Grants Pass in southern Oregon. Deep in the heart of Mount Elijah, the caves offer more than two miles of passageways and marble rooms filled with a wealth of fanciful formations.

Vets Must File Applications For Surplus Buildings

Scores of California veterans have lost first choice selection of buildings for homes under the State's war surplus housing program because they failed to obtain certified applications prior to sale openings.

This was announced today by Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer, who urged all veterans even remotely interested in purchasing surplus military buildings for housing construction to file applications now at his office in the courthouse, Redwood City, so they may take advantage of future sales announced at intervals for various areas in the state. Making application does not obligate the veteran to buy.

"Too many veterans have been waiting until after the sales are announced before filing their applications for eligibility certification," Granger said, "then they try to file directly in Sacramento. Applications should be filed at county veterans' service offices. Then a certified copy is returned to qualified veterans admitting them to sale sites. The certified copy is good until used."

Qualified veterans will be notified of all sales in advance.

Under the plan, groups of buildings including barracks, mess halls, and medical buildings are purchased by the State Department of Finance from the War Assets Administration and the military services and are sold individually at low, fixed prices to veterans in need of housing for their families.

Currently sales are being conducted at Camp Beale at Marysville, and at the Marine Corps Air Station at Miramar.

LEAKAGE LOSS HEAVY

Much of the oil that disappears on the long trip when the car is traveling faster than usual is the result of leakage rather than aeration or burning, according to the service department of National Automobile Club. Before starting such a trip, and at other times as well, it pays to have the various gaskets designed to prevent lubrication loss either tightened or replaced. Thin oil can find many ways of escape.

Auto Association Favors 'In Lieu' Tax Reductions

Support of a program to relieve motorists from the excessive tax burden imposed by the "In Lieu" tax levy was announced today by the California State Automibile Association.

This program, which would reduce vehicle license fees for many California automobile owners, is contained in Assembly Bill 89 just introduced at the current session of the legislature by Assemblyman Michael J. Burns of Eureka.

The bill would amend the Vehicle License Fee Act to provide a schedule of depreciation of motor vehicles, according to age, for tax assessment purposes.

The proposed amendment, which will receive active CSAA support, would retain the tax rate of $1.75 per $100 of assessed valuation, but would set up a scale of yearly depreciation, expressed in terms of percentage of advertised sales price in California as follows:

First year, 83%; second year, 70%; third year, 50%; fourth year, 35%; fifth year, 25%; sixth year, 20%; seventh year, 15%; eighth year, 10%, and ninth year and older, 5%.

Under this schedule motorists would be assessed in proportion to the age of their cars, resulting in substantial savings to many owners, especially those with older cars whose values have been frozen for tax purposes for the last six years.

Since January 1, 1943, when a "freeze' on valuations of motor vehicles for "In Lieu" tax purposes was made effective, automobile owners have been required to pay the same amount annually in vehicle license fees, regardless of the degree of depreciation of the vehicle on which the tax was being paid.

The new depreciation schedule would "unfreeze" these ceilings and vehicles would be taxed in accordance with their age.

Youthful Car Thief Caught By D.C. Police

Neil Halvorsen, 17, 535 Cordova street, San Francisco, was released to the Atherton Police Department last Saturday after Daly City police arrested him on charges of car theft.

The boy was apprehended while attempting to drive a stolen automobile out of the mud in the Crocker hills. He confessed to having stolen the car from in front of the Southern Pacific depot in Atherton.

Sergeant Roy Beecher and Officer Dave Johnstone made the arrest.

PARADE TROPHIES Awarded To Daly City, San Mateo Sheriff's Posse

The City of Daly City as well as the San Mateo County Sheriff's posse were victorious this week.

They both brought home exclusive honors in the form of trophies and citations for excellent showing in the March 14 St. Patrick's Day parade in San Francisco.

Competing with cities and smaller municipalities from throughout central California, Daly City took the prize for the best over-all community entry, which had been supported by merchants and organizations, as well as the city government and individual contributors. The judges' decision brought a smile to nearly every face in town.

The sheriff's posse, also a prize-winning group of equestrians, won over a large number of entries from as far away as Oregon.

Trophies are on display this week end at McGraw's Pharmacy, Hillcrest drive and Mission street.

Dog Days Named for Star

The period of summer known as dog days was named by the ancients as pertaining to the rising in the sky of the Dog Star, Sirius.

News Column For Veterans

During the past year Veterans Administration contact representatives in the Branch 12 area (California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii) conducted more than 1,658,000 personal interviews with veterans or their dependents regarding their federal benefits.

More than 6,500 interviews were conducted each business day by contact representatives. Contact men operated out of 57 offices, ranging in size from the large regional offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles to one-man contact offices. Itinerant services in the three states and Hawaii reached isolated veterans in small farming and mining communities in the mountains and desert and on small islands.

In addition, the contact men in the Branch 12 area handled 991,000 telephone calls and wrote 386,000 letters in their efforts to aid veterans in claiming their benefits.

During the more than 1,658,000 personal interviews the contact representatives filled out more than 565,000 applications for benefits for veterans and dependents.

In the country as a whole, the contact service conducted more than 20 million personal interview, filled out six and a third million applications, made more than nine million telephone calls and wrote nearly four and a half million letters.

The personalized service rendered veterans and their dependents by the contact representatives is just one of the many responsibilities delegated VA by Congress.

Question: When I was discharged from the army two years ago, I was advised by Veterans Administration to enter job-training under Public Law 16. Due to conditions beyond my control, I was unable to enter training at that time. Is it possible for me to enter training now?

Answer: In all probability, you can enter training now, but you should contact your nearest Veterans Administration office where your first advisement will be revaluated for you.

ed Bertetta, And dward J. Mooney wo Daly City council candi-es, Fred Bertetta and Edward Mooney, this week revealed that majority of Daly City voters or a larger city and improved reational facilities.

efore making the decision to r this year's city election the conducted the Daly City Pub-Opinion Poll to determine pub-feeling on two vital issues ef-ing the city's future.

he duo are making their first for city office.

n the public opinion poll two stions were asked. They were: "Should Daly City annex the itory to the west of the pres-city limits?"

n this case the answers were:
IN FAVOR.....84%
AGAINST 13%
NO OPINION.....3%

"Should Daly City have rec-ion centers as a living tribute he dead of World War II?"

he results on this question e:
IN FAVOR.....78%
AGAINST 18%
NO OPINION.....4%

ertetta and Mooney report are still receiving some post-d returns. These will be tabu-d at a later date.

MAJORITY IN FAVOR

o t h Bertetta and Mooney ed that if the poll had shown City residents were opposed nnexation and improvement of recreation facilities they would campaign for councilmen. They t out that such conclusive re-s leave them no alternative to finish the work now started hem.

ooney stated, "Many people ed me why present city council nbers did not take steps to an-additional residential territory an effort to enlarge the city ts.

didn't know the answer. After talking it over with sev-people we decided to conduct ublic opinion poll to determine the voting public felt on this l matter."

ertetta's remarks were, "Be-making the poll both Mooney myself were agreed that if the ple favored annexation and in-sed recreational programs we ld seek election to the city ncil in an effort to successfully plete such a program.

The present councilmen have e no effort to secure new terri-for the city. They seem con-to keep Daly City in the small n class.

The San Mateo county commu-es that have passed Daly City opulation are those where new dential areas have been an-ed. They are cities represented councilmen who are responsive ublic wishes. I propose to rep-nt all of you."

NOW SIXTH LARGEST

ertetta and Mooney revealed r study of San Mateo county s found Daly City now ranks h in population. In 1940 Daly was the county's fourth larg-city. In recent years both South Francisco and San Bruno have ed Daly City.

he duo report Daly City real te men concur in the opinion less than 200 residential lots ain for development.

he pair warn that if Daly City es to grow and expand its resi-tial area that a serious threat fronts property owners. A city doesn't, or can't, grow faces riod of declining property val-they state. The pair claim that through annexation will the be able to control the type of elopment to be placed on areas threatening to encircle Daly .

hen land is within a city its elopment is subject to approval ity officials. Land outside the is not.

Daniel A. Dolan

Daniel A. Dolan, contractor and businessman, who is an incumbent Daly City councilman seeking return to the council at the April 13th municipal election, today expressed himself as thankful for the civic, labor and business leadership support that his campaign is getting throughout Daly City.

Councilman Dolan, a running mate of Councilman Edward J. Dennis, labor leader, said of the campaign:

"In the last few days heavy support throughout the city has swung into action in behalf of my candidacy and that of Mr. Dennis. The people who are with us in this election have taken into consideration the fact that the present city council, of which we are members, has strived in every way to help Daly City's government progress along good administrative methods.

"Then, too, the people of our city realize that a labor-management team, such as we represent, is conducive to good business administration for the city whose citizens and taxpayers come from both the ranks of labor and business.

"San Mateo county has a population of more than 200,000 people. It is an influx of new people, many of whom have come to settle in the northern confines of our county. A great many are making their homes in Daly City and that means that our city is expanding and that its city government must keep time with this expansion.

"Consequently, many new innovations in city government, many new projects, and many new offers will be made to our city government. We naturally mean to progress with the times but we must also make certain that these new innovations, projects and ideas will prove a value to the taxpayers—rather than a detriment. To do this they must be analyzed carefully and time must be spent in their consideration.

"The answer to this, then, is to keep experienced hands in your city government and on that basis and upon our past records as city officials we seek the support of Daly City's voters at the municipal election of April 13th.

Edward J. Dennis

Strong support from labor, civic and business leaders throughout Daly City is noticeable in the campaigning to retain in office Incumbent Councilmen Edward J. Dennis and Daniel A. Dolan.

Keynote of the Dennis-Dolan campaign for return to the Daly City Council is: "Dennis is a labor leader and Dolan is a businessman—With a team like this you cannot miss!"

"I am most gratified at the strong support that is being given my campaign for reelection to the Daly City Council in the April 13th municipal election," said Councilman Dennis today in commenting on his campaign.

"During the four years that I have served the people of Daly City as a city official, I have strived to serve the people of my community as a good public servant. While I do not claim all the credit for our city's progress under the administration of this city council, I can say truthfully that I have gone along with every constructive measure in city planning that would benefit the citizens of Daly City.

"Daly City has a great future before it. Experience at the helm of city government is what we need now more than ever. Many new projects loom for the future. Some of these may be beneficial and others may not. Experienced hands in the city government are necessary to separate the good from the bad among these future projects so that Daly City may progress and yet not impose unnecessary tax burdens upon its citizens."

"As a labor representative, I have learned to represent the people and yet be able to enjoy the good will of business management. I know that in any enterprise, big or small, labor and management must work together to make possible success for that enterprise.

"City government, such as Daly City represents, is a big public enterprise within which the citizens stand to lose or profit — dependent entirely upon the actions of the city council.

"My record as a city councilman for the past four years stands as evidence that I have strived to make of city government a successful enterprise for the people."

Can rain solve the power problem?

Up-to-date answers to questions about the shortage

1 Are rains enough? No. Literally, too much water's gone out of too many reservoirs. Rains now cannot be expected to replace it.

2 Just how bad is the drought? It's the worst water power year in our history. This season's rainfall is far below normal. The snowpack in the mountains is scant. What snow and rain we have had has been poorly distributed—not enough of it in the area where it's needed most. And . . . to make things worse . . . this dry season follows a dry one last year.

3 What's the drought got to do with electricity? Water is power. Water shortage means power shortage. We have 14 steam-electric generating plants, but most of California's electricity is supplied by water. Today our 55 hydro-electric plants need water. Our 121 reservoirs are thirsty. Some are almost empty. The drought, too, creates unusual irrigation demands in orchards and farms. Pumping water takes still more electricity. That makes a bad problem worse.

4 Is the drought the only cause of the emergency? No. Actually there are many causes and the drought intensifies them. The story, boiled down, is this: During the war years we couldn't obtain priorities to maintain our normal building program. As soon as war controls were removed in 1945 we started all over again placing orders for generators, boilers, transformers and other equipment. Complex generators aren't sold like used cars. They must be built to order, piece-by-piece. The few plants in our country equipped to make them were crippled by strikes and other obstacles. Their production suffered. Delivery dates were missed. To make a tough problem tougher, the demand for electric power has increased even faster than California's tremendous growth in population.

Just last January we received the first steam-electric generator ordered before the war and re-ordered in 1945.

Place all these things together. Add the drought and the greatest migration in history. That's the emergency.

5 Where does the situation stand today? At best it is serious. We have been doing our best, and have been doing so right along, to get power from every source . . . and rush more steam-electric generators into service. But, as it stands today, no one can tell how long this critical situation will last . . . or how much worse it will get.

6 Will the new Shasta power help? Of course. Every bit helps. But new Shasta power alone is only a fraction of the total needed. Our area demand is more than 2,000,000 kilowatts. Shasta is expected to supply, next month, about 75,000 additional kilowatts, and another 75,000 kilowatts later in the year. It will help but you can see it won't go far.

7 How about daylight saving time? That means more help . . . equal to about 140,000 kilowatts. But it's still not a solution. The biggest saving, of course, is the 20% cut in use ordered by the California Public Utilities Commission.

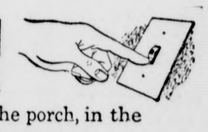
8 What is our record of public service? Let's take a quick look at the score: Except in wartime when we were refused priorities we have always built successfully ahead of demand. Our area enjoys the greatest farm electrification in the country. Our farms are 98% electrified . . . far ahead of other sections. Our rates are low. During the war we supplied power to a staggering number of industries. Not one was ever shut down for lack of power. Throughout California's greatest years of development electric power in good supply and at low rates has played a major part.

9 What are we doing to solve present problems? Since the war we've been building just as fast as is humanly possible . . . in spite of delayed delivery dates, material shortages and the like.

Right now, we're in the midst of a huge program of building hydro and steam electric plants. In the last year of the war, 1945, we spent over $22,500,000 on that program; in 1946, $45,000,000 and in 1947 over $100,000,000. Our 1948 construction expenditures are running at a rate exceeding $10,000,000 per month.

We're going to provide just as much power, from as many sources, as we can . . . in spite of obstacles.

Here's how you can lend a helping hand



This problem is everybody's problem . . . agriculture, industry, labor, business and householders. You can add your help by remembering to turn off all lights you aren't actually using . . . in the hall, on the porch, in the bathroom, in the garage. You can keep down the use of electric heaters. You can make sure the refrigerator door is tightly closed. With just a little care you can help a lot to stretch precious power. Won't you lend your helping hand?

LETTER To the Editor

Let's face it. People are getting discouraged about the United Nations and the lack of a coordinated program towards a genuine peace.

But what are we going to DO about it? Are we just going to sit back and cross our fingers, or are we going to work for what we want? During recent months there has been more and more talk about putting teeth into the United Nations by building it into a limited federal world government capable of settling disputes by law and order. Evidence of an active desirability for such a road to peace has been increasingly appearing.

In Los Altos, California, recently a town meeting was held for all of the citizens in a local hall, and petitions favoring limited world government were extensively signed. In Cleveland, Ohio, 200,000 citizens also signed such a petition. In Scarsdale, New York, 8,000 out of a total adult population of 11,500 signed a similar petition. And in the State of Massachusetts, a referendum on an official ballot brought a vote of nine to one in favor of incorporating this idea, and the state legislature unanimously passed a resolution based on this ballot.

Towns, cities, and many nations of the world are beginning to raise their heads and think about and work for this movement. What about the people of Daly City?

Sincerely,
Nancy Hoffman

Three D.C. Men Leave For Big League Farm Clubs

Three local baseball stars who have achieved the dreamed-of "discovery" by big league scouts now are taking their infant steps in possibly glorious sports careers of the future.

Bill Freeman, former player with the Daly City Baseball Club and the Guaraldi Brothers' Central Creamery team, left last Saturday for the San Francisco Seals' farm club at Yakima, Washington. Freeman will start with the Seals' "B" division, coached by Vern Johnson.

Tomorrow, March 26, will be a big day for Fred Fazzio, popular mound star for the Daly City Baseball Club, who leaves for the Brooklyn Dodgers' farm club. An alumnus of Jefferson High School, Fazzio is a veteran of three years' service as a sergeant in the army.

The time is coming close also for George Bournellis, who will join Seals trainees at their Pittsburg farm club soon. A former player on the Central Creamery and Daly City Baseball Club teams, Bournellis at one time coached the Colma Boys' Club juniors.

S.F. Youth Jailed On Car Theft Charge; Three Others Caught

One San Francisco youth was jailed on a charge of car theft and three other boys were turned over to San Mateo county juvenile authorities Sunday after their arrest by Daly City police.

Roy Arthur Johnson, 18, 73 Waltham street, was held in the county jail in lieu of $1,000 cash or $2,000 bond bail. Preliminary hearing was set for 10 a. m. April 2 in Daly City Municipal Court.

The boys were turned over to the police department by Leonard Robinson, 6798 Mission street, after he allegedly found them changing identification on his car.

Complaint was signed by Sergeant Roland Petrocchi.

DEEP ARE THE ROOTS,'

Controversial Play To Be Produced At Tivoli Theatre

Coming here direct from a record run in Los Angeles, the Arnaud d'Usseau - James Gow New York and London success "Deep Are the Roots" is scheduled to bring the Tivoli Theatre back into the fold of the legitimate stage on Tuesday, March 30, matinees will be given on Thursdays.

On this date the Tivoli will come under the aegis of Ray Spencer, who, claimed by Hollywood after his success with the intimate revue "Meet the People," has now returned to the stage to present "Deep Are the Roots" in such a highly competent manner that he is being hailed as a most potent addition to the growing list of California producers whose attractions are rated as highly throughout the land as are those of the most famous Broadway impresarios.

Spencer is not only making his show here as a producer but also as theatre operator, having arranged to house several other important attractions at the Tivoli after the run of "Deep Are the Roots."

As is well known by those who keep an eye on things theatrical, "Deep Are the Roots" is one of the most highly controversial dramas that has been brought to the stage for many years. Packed with the dynamite of the problem of racial intolerance, the play, in placing both sides of the question before the public in a terrifically realistic manner, has aroused so much intelligent discussion on this subject that, in the opinion of many, it is exerting no little influence toward the ultimate solution of the situation.

Aside from its social significance, however, "Deep Are the Roots" has won a name for itself as corking good theatre in all of the metropolitan centers where it has been produced. For the playgoer who loves the stage for itself it offers an evening of thrilling and satisfying theatre of the sort that will long remain one of the highlights of his theatre-going experience.

In the casting, direction and mounting of a play such as "Deep Are the Roots," there can be no compromises; the right artist must be selected for each part from the smallest bit to the several outstanding roles. Biding his time, Mr. Spencer would not do the play until he could secure just such a cast, using ability rather than name value as his yardstick. Then he waited until the movies would release John Berry to take over the directorial reins. The fact that the Los Angeles critics rated his production of "Deep Are the Roots" as one of the most impressive that has been presented there in several seasons, is conclusive proof that Mr. Spencer's methods are of the sort that have kept the stage alive throughout the ages.

WEIGHT AFFECTS PERFORMANCE

One of the factors in car performance on a long motor trip often ignored in spite of its importance is that the average automobile carries a greater burden than it normally is called upon to bear, declare officials of National Automobile Club's service department. Forgetting this fact, many are inclined to think the performance is off sufficiently to warrant minor adjustments that still further affect the car's output of power, speed, and comfort. The weight carried makes a big difference.

"Varieties Of '48" Opens At Geary Monday, March 29

The Geary will have for two weeks beginning Monday night, March 29, Franklyn D'Amore's "Varieties of '48" which is made up of one of the finest aggregations of vaudeville luminaries seen in a long time. Topping the cast is the stage and screen star, Michael O'Shea. His brilliant talent for comedy and his ingratiating personality would give him top billing in any production. Of international fame are "Think-a-Drink" Hoffman, Emil Boreo, Franklyn D'Amore and Anita and Grace and Nicco. "Think-a-Drink" Hoffman is said to be the highest priced bartender alive today. In the flash of a second or two he can mix your favorite drink and serve it with all the trimmings. Emil Boreo of "Chauve Couris," "Follies Bergere" and "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" fame and Franklyn D'Amore and the lovely Anita have long been favorites on both sides of the Atlantic as well as the comedy dancing team of Grace and Nicco.

Ted Fio Rito and his Orchestra are well known to San Francisco audiences and his return to the Geary is regarded by "cafe society" as the highlight of the season. His band and the famous Fio Rito charm are "IT" for smart entertainment.

Joe Cappo, funnyman, is full of talent and a leading exponent of the Broadway vernacular and humor. The Noel Sherman Dancers is a "headline act" composed of lovely girls who are described as "Show Stoppers" with each of their five specialty numbers. The Three Topnotchers and Frankie D'Amore add more surprises to all the fun.

As an added attraction and of great importance is the engagement of Miss Lili St. Cyr and Paul Valentine. Miss St. Cyr possesses a gorgeous body and beautiful face. Her unusual dancing act has made her the talk of the theatrical world. Critics in describing her say, "She stops the clock and no one cares what time it is . . . she is that good." In describing Paul Valentine the quotes of John Murray Anderson and the Philadelphia Daily News are an excellent recommendation. They say he is the best dancer since Nijinsky. On Broadway he starred in "Follow the Girls," "Sons O' Fun," "Gypsy Lady," and was dancing lead in the "Ballet Russe." He also had leading roles in the Chicago and Detroit Opera Companies and the St. Louis Muni Opera.

"Varieties of '48" will close on Sunday night, April 11. Performances will be given every night with bargain priced matinees on Saturday and Sunday.

STILL GOOD PRACTICE

"Dropping the crankcase at least once a year and having all sludge removed from the bottom and all dirt from the pump strainer still is a good idea in maintenance," states L. G. Evans, general service manager for National Automobile Club. "While the case is down, it will pay to have the mechanic inspect the main and connecting rod bearings for looseness."

A strong America is a peaceful America. Honor your army on Army Day, April 6.

Army And Air Force Offer Training, Pay Well For Enlistees

The U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force recruiting office located at 2399 Mission street (corner 20th and Mission), phone VAlencia 4-7186, will be open Friday of each week until 10 p. m. for the express purpose of giving the entrance examination to prospective enlistees and reenlistees who are unable to take the examination during normal hours.

Have you compared your civilian salary to the army or air force pay lately? If not get out the old pencil and compare figures. We have a lot to offer. Don't pass up a good secure career.

Let us help you with selecting an assignment of your choice. There are vacancies existing for local assignments at several posts, camps and stations. This is a good opportunity for ex-servicemen.

Remember there has been a pay raise since most of you were discharged. Come in and let us see if we can reenlist you in your old grade.

All ex-servicemen, regardless of branch may apply for grade authorization.

This office will be open every Friday evening until 10 p. m. starting Friday, April 2.

FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT

You Cannot Miss With A Team Like This!

Edward J.

Dennis

LABOR LEADER AND BUSINESSMAN

COUNCILMEN

Dan. A.

Dolan

Incumbent Councilmen Edward J. Dennis, the labor leader, and Daniel J. Dolan, the business executive, stand on the principle that there IS NO MORE IMPORTANT BUSINESS THAN THE BUSINESS OF MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

A successful city government, such as Daly City is today, pays dividends to its shareholders—THE TAXPAYERS.

The dividends forthcoming from good city government, such as we in Daly City enjoy today, come in the form of value received by the taxpayer FOR EVERY DOLLAR.

Part of the present City Council, Edward J. Dennis and Daniel A. Dolan, have proven by their records in office that they are TRULY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TAXPAYERS.

Do they believe in expansion of our city through annexation of adjacent unincorporated areas? YES, OF COURSE THEY DO!!

BUT BEFORE OUR CITY GOVERNMENT IS INVOLVED IN ANY SUCH PROPOSED ANNEXATION PROJECT, COUNCILMEN DENNIS AND DOLAN WANT TO BE SURE THE ACQUISITION OF UNINCORPORATED AREAS WILL NOT PLACE THE BURDEN OF INCREASED TAXATION UPON THE TAXPAYERS OF DALY CITY!!

Contrary to common belief that acquisition of new territory by annexation will lower a tax rate — IT CAN IN MANY INSTANCES INCREASE A CITY'S RATE.

For that reason, Councilmen Dennis and Dolan prefer to move along those lines CAUTIOUSLY AS WELL AS PROGRESSIVELY.

"Our first duty is to the people of Daly City," say the Incumbent Councilmen Dennis and Dolan.

The record shows that under the present city administration, of which they are a part, Daly City has progressed to the extent of achieving the following constructive measures:

A WORKABLE CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM; A GOOD RETIREMENT SYSTEM; A CONSTRUCTIVE RECREATION PROGRAM; AN OUTSTANDING FIRE ALARM SYSTEM FOR THE PROTECTION OF TAXPAYERS' PROPERTY; CONSTRUCTIVE BUILDING, ELECTRICAL AND PLUMBING CODES WHICH PROTECT THE HOME OWNER; COLMA BUS SERVICE; THREE-WAY POLICE RADIO SYSTEM FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE LIFE AND PROPERTY OF CITIZENS; A SAFETY PROGRAM FOR PROTECTION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN; A MUNICIPAL GARAGE and AN UP-TO-DATE WATER SYSTEM TO MEET ANY EMERGENCY.

These measures clearly show an intelligent expenditure of public money, and merit your support to return them to the City Council on April 13.

Councilmen Dennis and Dolan have been endorsed by the United AFL Labor Committee of San Mateo County, the Daly City Better Government Club and business and civic leaders throughout the city.
